

Volunteer Petition Gathering Information

We need your help to collect over 500,000 signatures to ensure that the Make Elections Fair AZ initiative qualifies for the 2024 ballot. We will be facing well-organized opposition who will stop at nothing to try to keep this issue from making the ballot. All gatherers need to be cautious as there are some very specific rules about signature gathering that we must follow to ensure each signature is counted correctly. We have provided a quick guide for volunteers to help get you started. If you have any additional questions, you can always email info@makeelectionsfairaz.com.

Can I circulate a petition?

- Any person who is qualified to register to vote in Arizona CAN circulate petitions. You do not actually have to be registered, just qualified to do so. You must be a U.S. citizen, at least 18 years of age on the date you sign the Circulator Affidavit, not convicted of treason or a felony, and not adjudicated to be incapacitated.
- People who don't live in Arizona but who would be qualified to register if they did live here CAN circulate petitions, but they must register with the Arizona Secretary of State before circulating petitions.

A person MAY NOT register to circulate a statewide initiative, referendum, or recall petition if they:

- Have had a civil or criminal penalty imposed for a violation of statutes relating to elections or initiatives, referendums, and recalls (A.R.S. Titles 16 or 19) within the immediately preceding five years;
- Have been convicted of treason or a felony and their civil rights have not been restored; or
- Have been convicted of any criminal offense involving fraud, forgery, or identity theft.
- Further, no County Recorder or Justice of the Peace may circulate initiative, referendum, or recall petitions in Arizona

INFORMATION FOR VOLUNTEERS

• Check the box marked "Volunteer" at the top of the petition before gathering any signatures. Petition gatherers must indicate volunteer status on the face of all petition sheets prior to circulation. If the paid or volunteer status is not correctly indicated, the signatures obtained on that particular sheet are considered void.

INFORMATION FOR SIGNERS

- People signing must complete all the fields (signature, name, address, date) themselves. No one else can write for them. There is an exception for someone who is physically incapable of signing and who instructs another, in their presence, to sign on their behalf.
- Signers must be registered to vote in Arizona to be considered valid.
- The signer must use a residential address, not a P.O. Box or other non-residential mailing address. If they do not have a physical or fixed address, they can include a description of where they reside.
- If a signer makes a mistake, completely cross out that line and have them enter their information correctly on a new line.
- Only people who reside in the same county should sign the same signature sheet. If you are getting signatures from a group of people from different counties, use one sheet for each county.
